IEEE First Virtual International Conference on Artificial Intelligence & Data Analytics (CAIDA)2021 provides an opportunity for national and international researchers to present their novel research findings and exchange information with the research community. CAIDA 2021 will bring along specialists, leading researchers, scholars, scientists, professors from fields of computer science, technology, engineering science, business, education and alternative connected areas to act and exchange ideas concerning the state of the art technologies associated with artificial intelligence & data analytics.CAIDA2021 will comprise of oral sessions, keynote speeches, technical workshops, panel discussions, best regular paper, best student paper & poster awards, e-Poster shows, video shows by the specialists in AI & ML domain.

Topics including, but not limited to:
- Machine learning and computational intelligence
- Data modeling and analysis
- Predictive Analytics
- Image Analysis and Processing
- Biometrics and Pattern Recognition
- Machine Learning and Deep Learning
- Big Data, cloud computing and data-intensive systems
- Data Visualization
- Virtual Reality/Augmented Reality
- Data Science application in E-commerce,E-Business and E-governance
- Human-Computer Interaction
- Emerging Artificial Intelligence Applications in Education
- Intelligent Tutoring Systems (ITS)
- Natural Language Processing
- Games and Emerging Technology
- Cross-disciplinary knowledge management
- Computer vision and computer-aided geometric design
- Intelligent user interfaces for computing systems
- Emerging fields of computational AI such as bio computing and quantum computing
- Web intelligence

TRACKS
- Track 1: Artificial Intelligence: Algorithms and Techniques
- Track 2: Data Analytics, Data Visualization & Prediction
- Track 3: Artificial Intelligence & Data Analytics applications for COVID-19
- Track 4: Multidisciplinary Application of AI & Data Analytics (in healthcare; renewable energy; IoT, Cybersecurity; education; agriculture; business)
